In these days of trouble and war
Around the world so gray,
There is only one truth
In the world today.

That truth must rise
Like a bridge of gold
Over waters troubled,
Over waters cold.

"Like a Bridge Over Troubled Waters"
Is what we call,
But does that bridge
Really rise for all?

For the poor in the slums,
Who have want and fears,
Will the bridge ever come
That can wash away tears?

For the Black and the Red,
Who have suffered so long,
Will the bridge ever come
That can right all that wrong?

Like a bridge over waters
 Troubled and bad
 One cannot raise it,
 And that is really sod.

We all must work,
 You, she, and me,
 To make this the land
 And the home of the free.

Don't You Wish We could All Just
 Gobble Up
 LITTER

We'll work to raise
This bridge and you'll see,
A land where everyone
Is equal and free.

A land where there is
No more hating and want,
A land where we put
Everyone up in front.

Being a Letterman means more than sponsoring a carnival once a year, or selling programs at the games. A letterman represents his school. He is an individual who has achieved something special, and he has accomplished this through hard work, time, and devotion to his sport.

Mr. Football, the bonfire, floats, a victory, and the traditional queen highlighted our Football Homecoming of '71.

The Ingots hosted Hanover Central Wildcats on September 17. Homecoming was climaxed with the crowning of senior queen candidate Sue Thormann and the naming of senior Bruce Hillard as Mr. Football.

The seniors and the sophomores tied for first place in the float competition while the juniors took second place, followed by the freshmen.

The evening was topped off with a 20-0 victory for the Ingots!

Clockwise: As the final seconds ticked away, the Ingots witnessed the first victory of the season.

Senior Bruce Hilliard (Mr. Football) runs with the ball.

Sue Thormann was elected Football Homecoming Queen of 1971. Her escort was Dove Burns.

BOB FLACH

In these days of trouble and war
Around the world so gray,
There is only one truth
In the world today.
That truth must rise
Like a bridge of gold
Over waters troubled
Over waters cold.
"Like A Bridge Over Troubled Waters"
Is what we call,
But does that bridge
Really rise for all?
For the poor in the slums,
Who have want and fears,
Will the bridge ever come
That can wash away tears?
For the Black and the Red,
Who have suffered so long,
Will the bridge ever come
That can right all that wrang?
Like a bridge over waters
Troubled and bad,
One cannot raise it,
And that is really sad.
We all must work,
You, she and me,
To make this the land
And the home of the free.
We'll work to raise
This bridge and you'll see,
A land where everyone
Is equal and free.
A land where there is
Na more hating and want,
A land where we put
Everyone up in front.

"A Bridge Over Troubled Waters,"
Is that what we need?
A bridge to go over
All this hatred and greed?
Yes, let us start at the source,
Within our own mind,
To make this world perfect
For all of mankind.

the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Foundation 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of people with mental health problems, and a number of initiatives have been developed to improve the lives of people with mental health problems. The Mental Health Act 1983 was amended in 1996 to give people with mental health problems more rights and to improve the way in which they are treated. The Mental Health Act 1996 was introduced to give people with mental health problems more rights and to improve the way in which they are treated.
